Requirements for Nomination: Nominees will be considered from two criteria-specific and general. Please read the information below and check which is appropriate.

_____ A. Specific Criteria:

Satisfying one or more of the specific criteria automatically allows an athlete to be considered for nomination to the Hall of Fame following a five (5) year eligibility period.

_____ First or second place in individual competition at the Region level.

_____ First or second team all-American (Academic All-American does not qualify)

_____ A member of the United States Olympic Team.

_____ B. General Criteria:

An athlete satisfying all of the general criteria may be nominated to the hall of Fame. Criteria should not be based primarily on performance at Lewis and Clark Community College.

_____ Must have been outstanding, as evidenced by such accomplishments as All-American, National Champion or qualifier, recipient of various athletic awards and honors, special team nomination (All-Conference, All-Region), school records set and statistics.

_____ Must have exhibited acceptable standards of conduct during competition, as a student on campus and as a citizen in the community.

_____ Graduation is preferred though not required. If the athlete did not graduate, the athlete must have ended his/her community college career at Lewis and Clark Community College.

_____ Must have been out of Lewis and Clark Community College for a minimum of five (5) years.
